

Name of the practice	Train-the-Trainer for future prison officers
Description	The curriculum of the National School for Training of Prison Agents Tîrgu Ocna (Romania) covers the following topics. The time allotted for each is in parentheses. Radicalisation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- theoretical approaches (100 minutes)</li> <li>- radicalisation as a process (100 minutes)</li> <li>- factors that influence radicalisation (200 minutes)</li> <li>- specific features of radicalisation in the penitentiary system (300 minutes)</li> <li>- internal and external sources of radicalisation of detainees (300 minutes)</li> <li>- the behaviour of radicalised inmates in detention (800 minutes for theoretical introduction/debate, and 400 minutes for practical activities)</li> <li>- the detention regime for radicalised persons (400 minutes for theoretical introduction/debate, and 200 minutes for practical activities)</li> <li>- measures taken for preventing risky situations associated with the radicalisation of inmates (400 minutes for theoretical introduction/debate, and 200 minutes for practical activities)</li> <li>- programmes for deradicalisation and disengagement (300 minutes)</li> <li>- preventing delinquency and terrorism in penitentiary environment (200 minutes)</li> <li>- religious assistance of persons deprived of liberty and taken into custody of the National Administration of Penitentiaries (100 minutes).</li> </ul> Training is delivered by the internal staff of the National School for Training of Prison Agents Tîrgu Ocna, Romania. Resources: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- human: teacher(s), students</li> <li>- equipment: laptop, video projector, flipchart, whiteboard</li> <li>- materials: course support</li> <li>- venue: classroom, simulator room.</li> </ul>
Approach	Prison and Probation Exit strategies
Target audience	Prison/probation/judicial practitioners The training is intended for students attending the National School for Training of Prison Agents Tîrgu Ocna, Romania. After graduating, these students may apply to become prison officers.
Deliverables	The main training output is threefold: face-to-face training, course books and practical application. Each year, the National School for Training of Prison Agents organises and hosts a number of conferences. Attendees are specialists focusing

	on radicalisation who have received training via different projects (e.g. the one mentioned above, titled 'Enhancing the capacity of the penitentiary system to develop the human resources of the penitentiary administration'). Moreover, the curriculum of the National School for Training of Prison Agents Tîrgu Ocna, Romania, which is approved by the Romanian Ministry of Justice, includes a theme on radicalisation, taught in the Penitentiary Psychology module.
Evidence and evaluation	We are currently using practical examples taken from different foreign penitentiary systems; our emphasis is on the preventive aspect of actions taken by penitentiary systems.
Sustainability and transferability	The training practice might be suitable for other countries as well.
Geographical scope	Romania
Start of the practice	The project began in 2015 with a project titled 'Enhancing the capacity of the penitentiary system to develop the human resources of the penitentiary administration'.
Presented and discussed in RAN meeting	This practice was collected in collaboration with the European Penitentiary Training Academies (EPTA) and EuroPris.
Linked to other EU initiatives or EU funding	Yes
Organisation	Governmental institution National School for Training of Prison Agents Tîrgu Ocna, Romania
Country of origin	Romania
Contact details	Contact person: Manuela Frăngu, Deputy Director Email: manuela.frangu@anp.gov.ro